DIRECTS ORCHESTRA... Elyse Achle will direct South Bay Civic Symphony Orchestra in concert to be presented in connection with the May Festival of the Arts in Redondo Beach Union High School Saturday night, May 20. The festival will include exhibits of the various arts and will be held May 20 and 21.

MAY FESTIVAL OF ARTS SET FOR MAY 20, 21

The second annual May Festival of the Arts will attract hundreds of civic-minded citizens throughout this entire area who are interested in all the arts.

Set for May 20 and 21 in the Redondo Union High School, the festival will include exhibits of photography, ceramics, paintings, flowers and other allied arts.

Saturday night will feature the appearance of the South Bay Civic Symphony Orchestra in a concert with a program of ballet numbers and the finished chorus of 100 voices from various other choirs and musical groups.

The chorus will present again this year but one selection, "Hallelujah" from "The Messiah" by Handel, accompanied by the entire symphony orchestra, under the direction of Elyse Achle. Mr. Mallory will direct the chorus. An estimated group of 250 dancers, singers and musicians will take part in the Saturday evening program.

On Saturday afternoon there will be folk dancing and the winding of the May pole on the high school lawn, with Mrs. Viola Niland in charge.

A group of three judges from Los Angeles will award first, second and third place ribbons in the painting exhibits to be hung in the main hall. In charge of this exhibit will be Ann Lebkuecher and Dale Sexton.

Anyone interested in entering an exhibit may do so without charge and all are invited to attend the two-day event. The exhibits will be on display by 10 a.m. on both days.

Ballroom Dance Class Re-opens

Beginning Tuesday, May 16, the free adult social dance class, sponsored by the Torrance School of Adult Education and held at the Three Arts Studios each Tuesday and Thursday nights, will be reopened for more students.

Since the class will end June 8, new students who enroll on May 16 will have four full weeks of instruction. Stress will be placed on the rumba, samba, and fox trot, but considerable time will be spent on review, so that new students with meager background in dancing will become easily adjusted to the class routine.

Students who have left the class temporarily are invited to return by going directly to the Tuesday and Thursday group or to the Wednesday group for a fast review before joining the other groups.

Adults, regardless of residence, are asked to go directly to class to register at the Three Arts Studio, 2232 Carson street, Torrance, on Tuesday, May 16, at 7:30.

Sharing the beauty of her garden with a group of young people brought pleasure to Mrs. Willis Brooks recently when she entertained Girl Scout Troop 416, which is sponsored by St. Andrew's Episcopal Church.

The girls enjoyed the afternoon, with the lovely wisteria vine at the height of its blooming season and Mrs. Brooks' unique teapot collection vying for their attention.

At the close of the business meeting, a beautifully decorated cake, made especially for the occasion, was served by Mrs. Brooks with lemonade and tea. Assisting with the serving were the troop leaders, Meses. Aloia St. Martin, Evelyn Neely and Gracemary Rhone.
